10 February 2014

Dear Year 7 Parents and Carers

Among the things we greatly value here at St Gregory’s are the parents of our students and we want you to feel that you are an important part of our community.

For the past two years we have been holding Parent Forums once a term for Year 7 parents. The first of these will be next Monday 17 February 2014, one at 9.00am and then one at 7.30pm. These Forums are held in the Donovan Centre.

The purpose of these Forums is to give parents the opportunity to meet with the Headmaster, hear what has been happening around the College, and future plans and actions. You will not be asked to volunteer for any positions or activity as part of these Forums. We have separated the various year groups so that you will have the opportunity to meet with other parents from Year 7. There is no expectation for you to attend every meeting (Terms 2 and 3), the dates of these are in your son’s diary and on the College Calendar.

My name is Sue Dein and I am the Parent Liaison contact here at St Greg’s. I will also be at the Forums, and welcome your questions and opinions.

If you have any questions in regard to the Forums please feel free to contact me at the College on telephone 4629 4206. I am also the Year 12 Coordinator and the College Careers Advisor.

I look forward to meeting you next Monday, or at a meeting later in the year.

Yours sincerely

Sue Dein
